Dear Friends,

Five years ago today, my life changed forever! It is hard to believe that it has been five whole years. It is hard to believe that it has only been five years! God has been good to me in these years and I am profoundly grateful.

Bob and I were blessed to have been in His service for our entire married life—almost 50 years. The fruit of those years will only be known in eternity. Many of you have prayed for and supported us through all that time and I thank you. This is just a short note to let you know how appreciative I am. Your prayers and interest have helped me along this new path.

God has blessed me in seeing many things go “full circle.” Today all of the children and most of the grandchildren got together on zoom to have a time of remembrance. My heart overflowed as I listened to everyone share memories about how their Dad (or Papi) had instilled wisdom in their lives. What more could I want in life! We were on 3 continents (Donna in Africa, Tim in France and the rest in the USA), in 4 states (California, North Dakota, Minnesota and SC) but we were all of one heart.

Thank you for your prayers for me as I continue my journey with Him. I’m praying He can continue to use me—here and in France. A special thanks to those who have continued to support me. It means so much.

In Christ,
Bonnie Bixby
